

PROFILE:

The American Center Library offers a wide range of resources, programs and services. Our mission is to provide timely, reliable and comprehensive information on the United States: literature and culture, politics and government, economics and trade, and foreign affairs and defense. Though our Library has a good general-interest collection, our resources are concentrated in five areas: American Studies, American Fiction, English as a Second Language, Computers, and Business and Management. Our Children's Corner offers books for our younger users, who are welcome to use the Library with their parent or guardian. We have a large video collection offering feature films and documentaries, as well as language audiotapes and CD-ROMs on a variety of issues. Over 80 periodicals and several newspapers are available.

The American Center Library is an essential part of the Public Affairs section of the U.S. Embassy, which promotes better understanding of American culture, history, values and institutions for the people of Bangladesh.

Borrowers' cards are not transferable, and a member is responsible for everything borrowed on his/her card. A replacement card costs 100 taka. The American Center Library reserves the right to restrict admission and to cancel the enrollment of any person who does not comply with regulations.

RESERVATIONS:

If a desired book is not on the shelf, request staff at the Circulation Desk to put it on hold. We will telephone or email you when the book is available.

FINES:

Members must return books and other materials promptly by the due date. Failure to do so will result in a fine of 5 taka per day, per book. Repeated late return of books may result in loss of borrowing privileges.

LOST/DAMAGED BOOKS:

ONLINE PUBLIC ACCESS CATALOG (OPAC):

Provides members with a listing of all Library material available. The database is searchable by author, title, subject, call number, key word, location, and barcode. OPAC is a user-friendly system, which enables the patron to determine the location and status of any book. Contact the Library staff for assistance.

PHOTOCOPYING SERVICE:

We offer limited photocopying service for academic or research purposes at the rate of 1.00 taka per page (letter size), 2.00 taka per page (legal size) and 2.00 taka per page from CD-ROMs and online databases.
